Keith Bradsher of the New York Times reported, "China's auto parts exports have increased more than six fold in the last five years" This increase has now enabled China to surpass Germany in auto parts export. Shipping over $1.9 billion in auto parts in the first quarter of 2007, which was an increase of 27% over last year. An additional $6.1 Billion was exported to the rest of the world.

Chinas total auto industry grossed $68 Billion worldwide in 2006 and is currently the fastest growing export.

SREA's new showcase facility, designed to rival Detroit's "Motor City" is certainly timely and represents a shift in power in the global auto market.

Read the news. The market watchers are already picking SREA across the board. Get on SREA first thing Thursday!

It's so easy to get lost in this song when you hear it.
You can't buy an iPhone in Canada.
perhaps you didn't know there isn't a Canadian edition of every magazine and TV channel you have.
Even better there's a nice whistling line you're going to find it hard to forget , and not to imitate!
Apparently frogs are very susceptible to environmental damage.
The vocals are heartfelt, really pretty and to a nice musical and rhythmical backdrop.
It's got to the point where if someone trailing me on the board passes me I'll go out and climb a few flights of stairs to try and regain my position.

Even at an expensive asking price you're bound to sell, sell, sell.
You heard me uber cool.
If you're already wearing sandals removing them will still give you a benefit.
it's too hot, it's too cold, it's too dry, it's too humid.
It'll also make you feel like you're living in a cave or bunker.

It's a very tasty red you'll probably have some trouble stopping drinking, plus it has a nice little frog on the label.
so why can't I get one?
It was a waste of time, useless, undesirable movie that just isn't worth seeing.
