

ASEAN Civil Society
Conference / ASEAN Peoples'
Forum 2022

CS 1- Alternative Regionalism Workshop Sessions

TITLE OF WORKSHOP	RATIONALE	ORGANIZATION & COUNTRY	POSSIBLE SPEAKERS	GUIDE FOR SPEAKERS	WORKSHOP COORDINATOR	WORKSHOP MODERATOR	ONLINE TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE	RAPPORTEUR	TYPE OF EVENT
03 NOV 2022 Workshop 1 (13:00 - 14:30) Understanding People-to-People Regionalism or Regionalism from Below	As the first session of the Convergence on Alternative Regionalism, it is important to start the session by knowing the framework, concepts of people-to-people regionalism from the perspectives of grassroots and marginalized communities across the region based on their alternative	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Movement for Alternatives and Solidarity in Southeast Asia (MASSA) ▪ UP Center for Integrative and Development Studies Program on Alternative 	Dr. Eduardo Tadem , UP CIDS AltDev (online) Lini Zurlia , ASEAN SOGIE Caucus (f2f) Norm Sina , Gender and Development for	General scope: What and why Alternative Regionalism? Why People-to-people Regionalism and not ASEAN Regionalism? Alternative Regionalism from the perspective of LGBTIQ+	Ryan Martinez , UP CIDS AltDev	Ryan Korbari , Arus Pelangi Indonesia (ASEAN SOGIE Caucus' delegation)	Raquel Castillo , SPELL Angging Aban, UP CIDS AltDev	Ryan Martinez , rcmartinez2@up.edu.ph	Face-to-face meeting and online

TITLE OF WORKSHOP	RATIONALE	ORGANIZATION & COUNTRY	POSSIBLE SPEAKERS	GUIDE FOR SPEAKERS	WORKSHOP COORDINATOR	WORKSHOP MODERATOR	ONLINE TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE	RAPPORTEUR	TYPE OF EVENT
15 mins. each speaker 30 mins- open forum	practices or initiatives that are not state-led. This is grounding the conceptualization of Alternatives/ Alternative Regionalism based on peoples' alternative practices. Amplifying the relevance of marginalized voices, this is a space led by marginalized groups who are often left behind in the broader human rights and social justice movement. Linking with the 2022 conference theme, this session will also discuss how peoples from below address rising authoritarianism, the pandemic, neoliberalism, and patriarchy. This is a platform for persons of diverse Sexual Orientation, Gender Identity & Expression	Development (UP CIDS AltDev) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ ASEAN SOGIE Caucus (ASC) ▪ Sustainability and Participation thru Education and Lifelong Learning (SPELL)- Philippines ▪ Asia Indigenous Peoples Pact (AIPP) ▪ HomeNet Southeast Asia ▪ Konfederasi Pergerakan Rakyat Indonesia (KPRI) ▪ Gender and Development 	Cambodia, GADC (f2f) Josephine Parilla, PATAMABA (f2f)	People-to-people cooperation among women and migrant workers People-to-people cooperation among women home-based workers and those in the informal economy

TITLE OF WORKSHOP	RATIONALE	ORGANIZATION & COUNTRY	POSSIBLE SPEAKERS	GUIDE FOR SPEAKERS	WORKSHOP COORDINATOR	WORKSHOP MODERATOR	ONLINE TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE	RAPporteur	TYPE OF EVENT
	and Sex Characteristics (SOGIESC) who often experience marginalization, discrimination, and remain unheard of and underrepresented, as a result of the heteropatriarchal normative.	Cambodia (GADC)
03 NOV 2022 Workshop 2 (15:00 - 16:30) Stories from below, reinforcing peoples' alternatives 15 minutes/ speaker 30 minutes open forum/ extension	Since 1st February 2021, Myanmar's ethnic and indigenous civil society organizations and community-based organizations have taken up positions at the forefront of the pro-federal movement to remove the coup junta from power and transform the state, and at the same time are leading humanitarian response efforts.		Guangchunliu Gangmei , Asia Indigenous Peoples Pact (AIPP) (f2f) Dr. Cynthia Maung , Mae Tao Clinic (tbc-online) Chhim Sithar , Labor Rights Supported Union of Khmer	Burma/Myanmar report on border issues that highlight the responses specifically of indigenous peoples, ethnic armed groups. Their response on militarization and during COVID-19 situation. Humanitarian and emergency response of border communities and stateless communities.	Frederic Wilson, AIPP	Luly Ketsana, Queer & Cheers Laos (ASEAN SOGIE Caucus' delegation)	Dali Ramona, ASEAN SOGIE Caucus	Frederic Wilson, AIPP	Face-to-face meeting and online

TITLE OF WORKSHOP	RATIONALE	ORGANIZATION & COUNTRY	POSSIBLE SPEAKERS	GUIDE FOR SPEAKERS	WORKSHOP COORDINATOR	WORKSHOP MODERATOR	ONLINE TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE	RAPPORTEUR	TYPE OF EVENT
	Taking off from the first session, the next discussion will focus more on the experiences and direct actions of peoples who are under crisis such as those in Burma/Myanmar who saw the collapse of democracy and democratic institutions under military power. Situational analysis of ethnic and indigenous peoples in post-coup Burma/Myanmar will be highlighted alongside identifying key players in the pro-federal and anti-coup movement, and political trends in relation to long standing ethnic and indigenous struggles for equality and self-determination. Moreover, this session shall open insights into how organizations outside and		Employees of NagaWorld (f2f) Vu Thi Minh Hang, Vietnam Women's Union (f2f)	Cambodian speaker will discuss labor rights, women vs. GBV, humanitarian response during COVID-19 and other emergencies. Other options are: Yang Sophaon: thecatu@gmail.com Ou Tepphallin: president@cfswf.org Stories from the Peace House Shelter as they responded to gender-based violence during the pandemic, especially on domestic violence and women trafficking in the Vietnam-China border.

TITLE OF WORKSHOP	RATIONALE	ORGANIZATION & COUNTRY	POSSIBLE SPEAKERS	GUIDE FOR SPEAKERS	WORKSHOP COORDINATOR	WORKSHOP MODERATOR	ONLINE TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE	RAPporteur	TYPE OF EVENT
	across the borders of Burma reinforced campaigns and cross-border solidarities among peoples. This session will also highlight how ethnic and indigenous civil society, community-based organizations, and marginalized groups across the region have taken the lead in organizing and delivering humanitarian assistance, protection and support, especially during these times of multiple crises such as militarism, authoritarianism, and the COVID-19 pandemic.
04 Nov 2022 (13:30- 15:00) Workshop 3 Intersectionality and	This space will provide an elaboration that every person's identity is carved from different experiences of either oppression or privileges for enjoying human rights and access to justice. The social,		Delfia Pereira Usboco, Manufahi Peasant Union Timor Leste (f2f)	How is intersectionality and solidarity practiced among women in the peasant unions towards agrarian reform? (Timor Leste case)	Lini Zurlia, ASC	Chandy Eng, GADC		Sangva Phoungvyna, GADC	Face-to-face meeting and online

TITLE OF WORKSHOP	RATIONALE	ORGANIZATION & COUNTRY	POSSIBLE SPEAKERS	GUIDE FOR SPEAKERS	WORKSHOP COORDINATOR	WORKSHOP MODERATOR	ONLINE TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE	RAPPORTEUR	TYPE OF EVENT
cross-border solidarity 15 mins. each speaker 30 mins- open forum	economic, and political elements always affect personal or community identity. It is for this reason that intersectionality, gender justice, cross-border solidarity, and people-to-people interaction must be the approach to strengthen the social justice movement and the alternatives movement. The analysis of the ASEAN SOGIE Caucus on the regional situation takes on an intersectional approach. LGBTQIA+ people are historically marginalized based on their sexual orientation, gender identity & expression and sexual orientations and expression (SOGIESC), but our experiences are also familiar to other civil society movements, which also contend with		Nop Vy, Cambodian Journalists Alliance (f2f) Srun Srorn CamASEAN (ASC member in Cambodia) Cipriano Fampulme, Aksyon sa Kahandaan sa Kalamidad at Klima (AKKMA Philippines) (f2f)	How does peoples' solidarity move forward amidst authoritarianism, neoliberalism, COVID-19 pandemic (Cambodia case on the mov't of digitalization)? Solidarity work among the LGBTQ+ groups in Cambodia and Southeast Asia How is intersectionality and solidarity practiced among urban poor communities? (Philippine case)

TITLE OF WORKSHOP	RATIONALE	ORGANIZATION & COUNTRY	POSSIBLE SPEAKERS	GUIDE FOR SPEAKERS	WORKSH OP COORDIN ATOR	WORKSHO P MODERATO R	ONLINE TECHNICA L ASSISTAN CE	RAPPORT EUR	TYPE OF EVENT
	 censorship, harassment, arbitrary arrest, violence, misinformation, and state-sponsored propaganda. These shared experiences, and the intersectionality of human rights, mean that trans-national and cross-sectoral solidarity must also inform regional LGBTQIA+ advocacy moving forward.   The session will also discuss peoples' digital rights, addressing the digital divide, and surveillance capitalism.   People need to hear the impact of digital technology on the situation of marginalized communities, as well as how utilizing this medium can advance alternatives, community struggles, and cross-border solidarity. It will be

TITLE OF WORKSHOP	RATIONALE	ORGANIZATION & COUNTRY	POSSIBLE SPEAKERS	GUIDE FOR SPEAKERS	WORKSHOP COORDINATOR	WORKSHOP MODERATOR	ONLINE TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE	RAPporteur	TYPE OF EVENT
	important to discuss how to advance alternatives in the age of digitalization. Other relevant topics to be discussed: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - P2P exchange on practices of LGBTQ rights movements - The ILO decision on Social and Solidarity Economy and unpaid care work - The effects of digital related laws in ASEAN Countries
04 Nov 2022 (15:00- 16:30) Workshop 4 Strengthening Alternative Regionalism through the People-to-People Exchange between South	The concept of the People-to-people Exchange (P2P) is not just solidarity exchange across sectors or countries but a platform for alternative development wherein the grassroots movement is the initiator. The P2P program serves as learning and solidarity		Anwar Sastro Ma'ruf, KPRI (f2f) Dr. Eduardo Tadem, UP CIDS AltDev (online) Vasudha Varadarajan Vikalp Sangam (online)	Sharing about importance of P2P, citing also past P2P exchanges: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - organized by the Konfederasi Pergerakan Rakyat Indonesia, Serikat Petani Pasundan, and UP CIDS 	Angging Aban, UP CIDS AltDev	Lini Zurlia, ASC (f2f) Angging Aban, UP CIDS AltDev as co-moderator (online)		Arvin Dimalanta, UP CIDS AltDev	Face-to-face meeting and online

TITLE OF WORKSHOP	RATIONALE	ORGANIZATION & COUNTRY	POSSIBLE SPEAKERS	GUIDE FOR SPEAKERS	WORKSHOP COORDINATOR	WORKSHOP MODERATOR	ONLINE TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE	RAPPORTEUR	TYPE OF EVENT
and Southeast Asian alternative practitioners (planning meeting- 10 minutes orientation/ overview from each speaker; rest is open discussion)	platforms for local, national, and regional participants. Participants lived for several days in the community and experienced the everyday life and struggles of the village people. The P2P program allows participants to share the learning process of communities, their social realities and struggle, and how they create solidarity and leadership in addressing peoples (needs). Research organizations assist in the process of documenting and theory building grounded on successes of community movements for radical alternatives. The first P2P exchange was held in 2019 in the peasant community in Tanjung Karang village in Pasundan (aka West		All attending participants	AltDev in 2019 in Indonesia <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - organized by the Asian Regional Exchange for New Alternatives in the 90s - organized by Vikalp Sangam, Crianza Mutua Mexico, and the Global Tapestry of Alternatives

TITLE OF WORKSHOP	RATIONALE	ORGANIZATION & COUNTRY	POSSIBLE SPEAKERS	GUIDE FOR SPEAKERS	WORKSH OP COORDIN ATOR	WORKSHO P MODERATO R	ONLINE TECHNICA L ASSISTAN CE	RAPPORT EUR	TYPE OF EVENT
	Java), Indonesia. Serikat Petani Pasundan hosted the participants from Philippines, Thailand, Laos, Timor-Leste, and other parts of Indonesia. By the end of November 2022, one of the objectives will be expanding the network building (region to region) of South Asia and Southeast Asian practitioners by bringing in experiences from the ground in these 2 regions. This particular session will discuss the planning of the 2nd P2P.								