

World Social Forum 2016

Mapping China from People's Perspectives

Conference

Aug 10 2016 9:00 - 11:30

Scholars from China shared their perspectives on the economic, cultural, social and political development of China, with a focus on people's initiatives. They dialogued with scholars and practitioners from Africa, Latin America and Asia, on China's development.

Speakers

Professor DAI Jinhua, Beijing University, China

Professor LAU Kin Chi, Lingnan University, Hong Kong, China

Professor SIT Tsui Margaret Jade, Southwest University, China

Mapping China from People's Perspectives

Activity Lead Organization

Global University for Sustainability

Conference

Aug 10 2016 9:00 - 11:30

Université du Québec à Montréal –
Pavillon A (Local A-2575)

Group Admins

Tsui SIT

400, rue Sainte-Catherine Est

Montréal, QC, Canada

Programming theme

Economic, Social and Solidarity Alternatives facing the Capitalist Crisis

Languages

English

Objectives

To inform / To make aware of

Networking / To meet

Debate / deliberate / discuss

To propose / alternative development

Partner development / alliances constitution

Target audiences

General

Activities extended on the Internet

no

Last Modified

9 May 2016

EDIT

